Winner Citywire Wealth Manager Advisers' Choice Awards 2011: Medium Firm

Vestra Wealth have been voted winner of the Citywire Wealth Manager Advisers' Choice Awards 2011: Medium Firm for the second year running.

Citywire's expert panel of over 300 financial planners were asked to identify those wealth managers who have provided the best service and investment performance for the needs of their clients. They were asked to rate discretionary managers on a scale of one to five on the following categories:

- efficiency of service
- relationship management
- reporting
- investment performance

The results were analysed and shortlists drawn up by AKG Consultants & Actuaries.

Set up three years ago, Vestra Wealth remains committed to providing high service levels to the intermediary market.

Tony Allan, Head of IFA Business Development at Vestra Wealth, says: 'We strongly believe in the importance of working with IFAs in order to provide their clients with the very best level of service, whatever their investment requirements. This award acknowledges our commitment to them.'
