Vestra Wealth continues its strong growth with two senior investment hires

28 June 2010, UK, London – Vestra Wealth, the independent wealth management firm, has announced the appointment of Edward Campbell-Harris and James Wenyon. Both join the firm as Investment Managers.

Edward joins from UBS Wealth Management, where he was a Director and Senior Client Advisor for seven years. He managed and advised resident domiciled & resident non-domiciled clients, charities, SIPPs and Trusts. Edward's experience in the financial services industry spans over 25 years. He started his career at Merrill Lynch, before moving on to CSFB, Schrodgers in Australia and London, and Flemings/JP Morgan Chase. Between 1996 and 2001, Edward ran Jardine Fleming Securities in Seoul, South Korea.

James also joins from UBS, where he was a Director and Senior Client Advisor for eight years. Prior to joining UBS, he was an Equity Partner at Chase de Vere Investments. James has over 18 years of experience in advising high net worth individuals and managing portfolios of both domiciled and non-domiciled UK residents. Before embarking on a career in financial services, James worked for the UK Ministry of Agriculture as a Business Management Consultant, advising UK farmers on all aspects in respect to their trading enterprises.
